RULES OF APPLICATION

Introduction: The Ventura Superior Court has adopted the attached uniform countywide bail schedule pursuant to Penal Code §1269b. It sets the presumptive bail amount, which is applicable to warrantless arrestees until such time as a judge reviews the issue. When an arrest occurs pursuant to a warrant and the suspect is only booked on the warrant, bail shall be set in the amount of the warrant, unless otherwise ordered by a judge. The following rules provide guidance and establish procedures for implementation of the schedule.

1. Check felony bail schedule first. Some offenses listed on the misdemeanor schedule have subdivisions, which are felonies. The felony schedule applies to arrests under a felony subdivision. Example: Penal Code §273.6(d) is a felony listed on the felony bail schedule ($20,000); all other subdivisions of Penal Code §273.6 fall under that listing on the misdemeanor schedule ($10,000).
2. Listed section numbers include unlisted subdivisions. Examples: (1) On the felony schedule Penal Code §261; 2) On the misdemeanor schedule Penal Code §422.6.
3. Bail amount for unlisted offenses:
  - Felonies – $10,000
  - 17(b) misdemeanors* – $ one-half the felony bail
  - Other misdemeanors – $2,500
  - *NOTE: Penal Code §17(b) provides that the District Attorney or court can declare “wobbler” offenses to be misdemeanors. At the booking stage, the Felony Bail Schedule applies to all wobbler offenses.
4. Bail amount when suspect booked for violation of probation:
  - Felony probations – No Bail
  - Misdemeanor probations – $5,000
5. Attempts, accessories, conspiracies and solicitations: The schedule shall be the same as the target offense, but no less than the amount listed in the bail schedule. See Penal Code §§32, 182, 653f, 653j, 664. Example: The bail for conspiracy to commit a misdemeanor would be no less than $20,000.
6. Crimes committed while on bail, OR, and stays of jail time:
Double standard bail for new offense, whether felony or misdemeanor.
7. Crimes committed while on probation or diversion (including juvenile cases), suspect not booked on VOP:
  - Add $5,000 for each misdemeanor probation or diversion
  - Add $10,000 for each felony probation or diversionNOTE: This bail increase applies whenever booking officer has reasonable cause to believe probation exists, including by admission of the arrestee. Example: Suspect booked for felony DUI is still on probation for two prior misdemeanor DUIs; the $20,000 bail for felony DUI would be increased to $30,000 by adding $5,000 for each probation.

8. Multiple offenses:
  - Normal rule: highest amount for most serious offense
  - Exception for multiple victims of violent crimes: sum of highest amount for most serious offense against each victim, not to exceed $500,000.
  - Exception for multiple acts of violent crimes committed on separate occasions: sum of the highest for each occasion, not to exceed $500,000.

9. Felony enhancements: Where any of the listed enhancements are present, the bail shall be set at the sum of the amount for the most serious offense and the amount of the enhancement. When the classification deputy is aware of facts, which appear to qualify as an enhancement, the bail amount should be set accordingly and the facts and applicable bail should be explained to the on-call magistrate. Examples: (1) Suspect booked for second-degree robbery during which he personally shot and wounded the victim; bail schedule is $300,000 [$50,000 for Penal Code §211 plus $250,000 for Penal Code §12022.53(d)]. (2) Suspect booked for petty theft with a prior (Penal Code §666) has two prior convictions for offenses listed in Penal Code §667.5(c) or §1192.7(c); bail schedule is $260,000 [$10,000 for the section 666 violation, plus $250,000 for the Penal Code §667(e)(2)(A) third strike enhancement].

10. Bail increase declarations: Penal Code §§810(b) and 1269c require that information related to requests for own recognizance release or bail less than the schedule be forwarded to the on-call magistrate. All law enforcement agencies are requested to make available on request to arrestees and their attorneys, relatives, or friends Superior Court Form 3000, "Declaration in Support of Motion to Set Bail Below Schedule or for Own Recognizance Release." Completed forms should be forwarded to the classification deputy at the Ventura County Jail, who will relay the information to the on-call magistrate. Requests to speak directly with the magistrate should be relayed to the magistrate by the classification deputy. The individual magistrate will decide how to proceed from there, but the purpose of the form is to make most such contacts unnecessary.

11. Challenges to source of bail: Effective January 1, 1999, a peace officer or prosecutor may challenge the source of bail in any case rather than only in drug cases. When such a declaration is filed, or when the classification deputy is aware of facts suggesting a felonious source, bail should not be accepted until the on-call magistrate is contacted. This contact must occur within 24 hours of the filing of the declaration. If the magistrate finds probable cause that bail has been feloniously obtained, bail must not be accepted until the arrestee proves a legitimate source of bail to the magistrate or in court. If no probable cause is found, normal release procedures apply. See Penal Code §1275.1.

12. Special rule for serious and violent felonies, stalking, and misdemeanor domestic violence: For any offense listed in Penal Code §1270.1(a), release before arraignment on bail either more or less than the bail schedule amount is forbidden. This code section is confusing, but appears to allow pre-arraignment release if the on-call magistrate sets bail at the schedule amount. If a higher or lower amount is set or if Own Recognizance (O.R.) release is granted, the arrestee cannot be released before arraignment even if bail is posted. If a dangerous situation presents itself, the on-call magistrate should be contacted immediately. Example: Shortly after magistrate sets bail on "routine" spousal battery (Penal Code §273.5) at the schedule of $20,000, the frightened victim calls and reveals that earlier this same day she testified against this same defendant in a felony stalking prosecution in Los Angeles for which the current battery was a retaliation. Before $20,000 bail is accepted, this new information should be revealed to the on-call magistrate. If the magistrate increases bail, the suspect cannot be released prior to arraignment. If the magistrate leaves bail at $20,000, the arrestee would be released if that amount is posted. Note: For purposes of this rule, the bail schedule amount is the listed figure without regard to any increases provided for in these rules. Accordingly, when bail is increased pursuant to these rules for an offense listed in Penal Code §1270.1, the arrestee may not be released before arraignment. Example: A spousal battery arrestee (Penal Code §273.5) is currently on probation for a misdemeanor violation of the same offense. Ventura County Bail Schedule Rules 7 and 14 will increase the bail substantially from the schedule amount of $20,000. Consequently, that arrestee cannot be released prior to a hearing in open court, pursuant to Penal Code §1270.1.

13. Special rule for domestic violence with similar priors: Double standard bail for felony or misdemeanor domestic violence (Penal Code §§243(e), 245 if domestic, 262, 273.5, 273.6, 273.65, 422) where there is reasonable cause to believe arrestee has a prior conviction for an offense on the Domestic Violence Enhancement List, except that the $100,000 bail for felony stalking would not be doubled by such a prior. The Domestic Violence Enhancement List includes the following offenses and their out-of-state equivalents, both felonies and misdemeanors: Penal Code §§187, 192(a), 203, 207, 209, 210.5, 211, 215, 220, 243(d), 243(e), 243.4, 244, 244.5, 245, 261, 273.5, 273.6, 273.65, 286, 288, 288.5, 288a, 289, 417, 422, 451, and any felony in which an allegation that defendant inflicted great bodily injury or used or was armed with a firearm or deadly weapon was found true. Note: Rule 14 should apply before other increases required by other rules are applied. Example: A misdemeanor domestic battery arrestee (Penal Code §243(e)) is on probation for a felony drug offense and has a prior misdemeanor 273.5 conviction. The 273.5 prior will double the normal bail from $5,000 to $10,000; the felony probation then adds $10,000 for a total bail of $20,000.

14. Special rule regarding ineligibility for OR release: Effective in 1999, Penal Code §1319.5 requires a hearing in open court before any of the following can be released on own recognizance:
  - Anyone currently on felony probation or felony parole.
  - Anyone with three or more failure to appear warrants in the last three years not involving the Vehicle Code currently arrested for any felony or certain misdemeanors specified in section 1319.5.

15. Out-of-county holds: The Felony Bail Schedule applies (minimum $10,000) to out-of-county holds when no amount has been previously established or shown on a warrant.
